Norway and Vicinity

Norway Churches

There is still a mighty Sunday school contest being waged between the Mechanic Falls M. E. Church and our own Norway Methodist Church.
The annual Harvest Dinner and Supper of the Methodist Church will be given in the Church H. Hall next Monday night at 6:15 p. m. In the evening there will be a short entertainment and a social for all will follow. Rev. Helen Hove Carlson, who is visiting with the W. C. T. U. will give a short address to the folks who gather with us after the supper.

Christ Church Episcopal
10:45 a. m., morning prayer and address by L. M. Thornehill of Portland. Rally Day will be observed and it is hoped that all communicants and friends will make a special effort to be present.

Mrs. May L. Webster of Portland has been the guest for several days of Mrs. Grace Brown.
Mrs. Margaret Stevens, who has been at the C. M. G. Hospital for surgery, is making a good recovery.
Mrs. Grace Hove Foley of Bethel, widow of William Foley, is the guest of Miss Mrs. Elizabeth M. Stevens.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Horner of Hallowe'en were week end visitors of her sister, Mrs. Percy H. Nevers, and family.
Mrs. Millie Moore has gone to Philadelphia to visit with her brother and sister for three weeks.
The meeting of the Kiwanis Club was held at the Norway Grange Hall, Thursday noon, the speaker being L. B. Costello.

Repairs are being made in the basement on one end of the Schauer house, Greenleaf Avenue. The room will be finished for a garage.
Mrs. May L. Webster is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fletcher, at Lynn, Mass. Her parents will accompany her home next week.
The Browning Reading Club will meet with Mrs. Alice Stevens, Monday evening, Oct. 17. The program includes recitation of poems by members and reading of the play, "The School of Scandal" by Mrs. Harriet Brown and Mrs. Edith Bartlett.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Schenk, Miss Smith and Mr. Rashio of Lynn, Mass. have been spending a few days with Mrs. and Mrs. Orey Wiles and Mr. and Mrs. Marie Wiles. Mr. Schenk is still remaining at camp at Poland and his health is steadily improving. William Schenk, Jr., has entered Tufts College.
The schools were closed Monday as the teachers attended the Oxford County Teachers' Convention at Rumford.
